“O Lord, you are my portion and my cup...” Psalm 16

Did You Know?

Dorothy Day was a Benedictine Oblate.

From the earliest days of the Catholic Worker movement, Dorothy’s description of the Houses of Hospitality reflected monastic roots. “The general purpose of the Houses of Hospitality is to form a center of Catholic action...to form a powerhouse of genuine spirituality...and to work for the glory and love of God and His Church.”

Servant of God, Dorothy Day
p.42 Houses of Hospitality

“Houses of Hospitality will emphasize personal action, personal responsibility as opposed to political action and state responsibility.”

The Catholic Worker,
December 1936

The Duty of Hospitality

A Plea to the US Bishops for Houses of Hospitality by Peter Maurin September, 1933

People who are in need and not afraid to beg

give to people not in need the occasion to do good for goodness' sake.

Modern society calls the beggar bum and
panhandler and gives him
the bum's rush.

But the Greeks used to say that people in need are the ambassadors of the gods.

Although you may be called bums and panhandlers
you are in fact the Ambassadors of God.
